SHAVUOT
June 10, 2019
We are all destined to die. We share it with all who ever lived and with all who ever will be. Let the memory of all those we have lost be a source of peace, and be consoled when the soul seeks its final resting place.

Let us not seek to understand what is too difficult for us, nor search for what is hidden, nor be preoccupied with what is beyond, for we have been shown more than we can comprehend.

As a drop of water, as a grain of sand on the shore are our few days in eternity. The good things in life last a short time, but a good name endures forever.

Ben-Sira
“The memory of the righteous shall be a blessing.”

Eternal God, Source of mercy, give us the gift of remembering. May our memories of the departed be both tender and true, undiminished by time, not falsified by sentimentality. Let us recall them and love them as they were. Give us the gift of tears. Let us express our sense of loss, our sorrow, our pain, as well as our gratitude and love. Give us the gift of prayer. May we comfort You with an open heart, with trusting faith. Give us the gift of hope. May we always believe in the beauty of life, the power of goodness, the right to joy. May we surrender our being, and the souls of the departed to Your eternal compassion.

CONG: The price of living is too high to go on endlessly. There is no way to evade death forever.
RABBI: Clearly, death engulfs even the wise no less than the foolish and unenlightened.

CONG: They, too are lost, and leave their possessions to others. Their grave is their eternal home, their dwelling for all time.
RABBI: Such is our fate; it is foolish to expect otherwise, to wish for a different end.

CONG: So have no fear – do not envy the riches of others, nor be jealous of their influence.
RABBI: For they can take nothing with them to the grave; their glory does not follow them when they die.

CONG: My help comes from the Lord, Maker of heaven and earth.
I never think of myself as waiting for you,
but then when the holiday has come and gone
when I’m packing up the Pesach dishes,
or taking down the sukkah
I feel hopeless and alone.
Inconsolable
Then I realize
I’ve left a small corner
somewhere deep inside myself unpainted.

And in that small corner
I’m still a child,
a little girl,
waiting.
And I had hoped without knowing it
that this chag
you’d come.
My tears fall on the Pesah dishes
and I wonder why you’ve left me here alone.

-Merle Feld
Do not stand at my grave and weep
   I am not there. I do not sleep.
I am a thousand winds that blow.
I am the diamond glints of snow.
I am the sunlight on ripened grain.
   I am the gentle autumn rain.
When you awaken in the morning’s hush
   I am the swift uplifting rush
Of quiet birds in circled flight.
I am the soft stars that shine at night.
Do not stand at my grave and cry;
   I am not there. I did not die.

CONG: I will bring G-d’s offerings with shouts of joy. I will sing, I will chant praise to the Lord.
We Remember Them

In the rising of the sun and it’s going down,
we remember them.
In the blowing of the wind and the chill of the winter,
we remember them.
In the opening of the buds and the rebirth of spring,
we remember them.
In the blueness of the skies and the warmth of summer,
we remember them.
In the rustling of the leaves and the beauty of autumn,
we remember them.

As long as we live, they too shall live,
for they are now a part of us,
as we remember them.

When we are weary and in need of strength,
we will remember them.
When we are lost and are sick of heart,
we remember them.
When we have joys we yearn to share,
we remember them.
When we have decisions that are difficult to make,
we remember them.
When we have achievements that are based on theirs,
we remember them.

As long as we live, they too shall live,
for they are now a part of us,
as we remember them.

-by Sylvan Kamens and Rabbi Jack Riemer
There is a Hole in my Heart
A selection from Washing Away the Pain
by Kenneth Esrig

There is a hole in my heart that does not bleed
A hole in my heart that burns round the clock.
There is a hole in my heart from an unexpected loss
There is a hole in my heart - when will it stop?
An arrow makes a hole that sewing can repair,
This is a hole made only by despair.
The mending is slow and fixed only with care,
A hole so big, can it ever be filled?
It takes love and support to fill this hole in.
A hole in the heart can take many forms
An absence, a loss, a failure of course.
Don’t buy any thread no shovel or sand,
This is a hole that only time mends.

Beth El’s Future Is Your Future!

Beth El has many ways for you to
• Remember Loved Ones
• Honor Families and Friends
• Celebrate Special Occasions

Among them are
• Include Beth El in your will
• Name Beth El as beneficiary of a life insurance policy
• Dedication opportunities
• Endowment opportunities
• Memorial (Yahrzeit) Plaques
• Leaf or Stone on our Tree of Life
• A contribution to one of our many funds

Once in every lifetime ...

A decision must be made by, or on behalf of, each person about a final resting place. The best time to select a site is when you don’t need it — when you and your family can make the right decision calmly and thoughtfully, together.

Please contact the synagogue office to discuss available sites in Beth El’s section at King David Memorial Park, planned giving, endowment, or dedication opportunities.
PLEASE NOTE
The compilation of the list of names in this Yizkor Book of Remembrance is a major task of love and labor. While we have tried to be precise and have rechecked our work, some errors or omissions may have occurred.
We ask for your understanding.
